COURSE PURPOSE

This course is designed to develop the motivation, study habits, and problem solving skills necessary for success as a freshman engineering student. Students are introduced to the opportunities and challenges offered by a career in engineering. They also gain experience in the application of basic computer tools (e.g., Excel and MATLAB) to analyses typical of engineering. Finally, students develop an understanding and appreciation of the design process and the open-ended problems found in the practice of engineering.

COURSE OUTCOMES:

Upon completion of this course, students should have:

1. An elementary knowledge of the disciplines in engineering, especially the undergraduate programs and extracurricular opportunities available
2. A basic understanding of and experience in the steps and techniques of engineering design
3. Emerging skills in written and/or oral communication related to engineering design
4. Introductory skills in teamwork with peers
5. Preliminary development of the habits of mind that engineering study and practice require
6. Summarize and give examples of the ethical and professional issues characteristic of an engineering career
